CAMINOS

CAMINOS actively advocates for peace and justice in Guatemala. Since 1996, it has sent human rights observers to live and work in Guatemala, has responded to human rights abuses through an urgent action network and has facilitated exchanges between people of Guatemala and the U.S. Currently, CAMINOS sponsors a human rights observer who accompanies witnesses seeking justice in legal cases against former military dictators. You can help advance CAMINOS work by joining the CAMINOS Steering Committee!

Advocacy & Nonviolent Activism

DJPC members advocate and educate each other, legislators and the community-at-large on the importance and necessity of human rights, nonviolence and social justice considerations in U.S. foreign policy towards Latin America and in U.S. corporate business practices abroad. Nonviolence is the core of DJPC's mission. We organize and support nonviolent actions to raise awareness on issues affecting Latin America.

Mission Statement

The Denver Justice & Peace Committee is a volunteer organization dedicated to promoting human rights, economic justice, and lasting peace in Latin America through education, solidarity projects and nonviolent activism.
