

DJPC's Salon Discussion Series

Presents

Nicaragua Health: Past, Present, and Future

Facilitated By:

Jeremy Lee (Director of Service Learning)

Sharif Abdelhamid (Associate Director of Service Learning)

Regis University - Rueckert-Hartman College for Health Professions

Come prepared for the Salon Discussion by Reading/Listening To:

http://www.tortillaconsal.com/health_nicaragua.html

<http://www.theworld.org/2011/12/kidney-disease-epidemic/>

Thursday, May 17th

7:00PM-9:00PM

Highlands United Methodist Church

2nd Floor Community Hall

3131 Osceola St. (Northwest Denver)

Free parking in church lot at 32nd & Osceola and on street.

Denver Justice and Peace Committee (DJPC) is a volunteer organization dedicated to promoting human rights, economic justice, and lasting peace in Latin America through education, solidarity projects, and nonviolent activism.

For more information: 303-623-1463 - djpc@denjustpeace.org