

THE DENVER JUSTICE & PEACE COMMITTEE PRESENTS:

Phone: (303)623-1463 Email: djpc@denjustpeace.org

Mayan Leaders of the CPR-Sierra

Salon: Rural Healthcare in Indigenous Guatemala

THURSDAY, APRIL 7th 7:00-9:00PM

Denver Justice & Peace Committee

3131 Osceola Street, Denver 80212

Domingo Alvarez Ajanel and Pedro Bernal Raymundo, indigenous Mayans and members of the lead health team, will share about the work they are doing as health promoters in their communities and the work Promesa is doing in Guatemala. Promesa is a partnership between the Denver Justice & Peace Committee and several other organizations that seeks to improve health and primary health care delivery in indigenous villages in rural Guatemala.

An Evening With Our Mayan Friends

FRIDAY, APRIL 8th at 6 PM

Located at Buenos Aires Pizzeria

1319 22nd Street Denver, CO

$20 donation

RSVP at (303) 623-1463

You are invited to share empanadas and pizza with Domingo Alvarez Ajanel and Pedro Bernal Raymundo. We hope you will join the Denver Justice and Peace Committee in welcoming our Mayan visitors from Guatemala and take the opportunity to chat with them informally about their work, their communities and current events in Guatemala.

REDGUA Potluck Gathering

SATURDAY, APRIL 9th at 6 PM

Located at

Dora Medina's home

1630 Adams Street Denver, CO

Please join Dora Medina, the Guatemalan Network, REDGUA and Denver Justice and Peace Committee for a potluck dinner with Mayan leaders of the CPR of the Sierra. Chat with them and other Guatemalans about the latest developments in health and politics during the 2011 presidential election year.

